
Aqidah Tauhid by Dr. As'ad The noble Qur'an is the unchangeable word of God, the mission of Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) was to teach humans its correct interpretation and way of life, and similar to the teachings in the Bible, there are many interpretations about what it means. The time has come for Muslims today to return back to their original beliefs, because what was meant for this life is also meant for another life. If you truly grasp this concept, it will provide peace of mind and complete relaxation through action on your part. This article is dedicated to explaining how to attain Ihsan through actions, rather than just words. This article is an effort by Dr. As'ad, a renowned leader of Islamic education, to guide those who seek to attain Ihsan (God-consciousness). The article starts with explaining the concept of Ihsan. It then moves on to describe some examples about how one can achieve Ihsan through actions. Nafs is the life force of man, which is the centre that directs all our movements and desires and speaks and acts for us (Qur'an 50:45); it is like a partner in business and works as a partner with us on Earth. It has eyes and ears on its own; it follows our orders; we do not have to think about what we want it to do — it does everything automatically. It obeys our commands and it can be a force for good or evil. Man, however, is responsible for controlling the nafs and directing it to do permissible acts. Allah has given us free choice to choose what we want to do with the nafs. In this article, Qur'anic verses serve as examples that illustrate how one can achieve Ihsan through actions. We have been given this verse as an example of how one can achieve Ihsan through actions: "Those who strive in Our (cause),- We will certainly guide them to our Paths: For verily Allah is with those who do right" (29:69).
